

Army Public School Alwar Wins National Literary Leadership Award (Rank 1 - Rajasthan and Rank 35 Nationwide) by BriBooks

We are pleased to announce that BriBooks, the world's leading platform for children's creative writing, has provided an exceptional opportunity for children of all ages to develop their writing skills and publish their own books online. In this context, Army Public School, Alwar, has achieved remarkable success by securing Rank 1 in Rajasthan and Rank 35 nationally in the prestigious National Literary Leadership Award. A total of 101 students from the school have contributed to the platform by writing and publishing their books, demonstrating their creativity, talent, and dedication. This achievement is a testament to the exceptional leadership of Principal Ms. Neera Pandey, In-charge Ms. Shreya Sharma and Mr. Ajay Kumar Gupta who have all played an instrumental role in fostering and supporting the literary growth of the students.
